ALBANY'S GREAT PUMPKIN

Jody Hammer of 910 Santa Fe has invited you to drive by her home and see the 85-pound jack-o-lantern on the front porch. It was grown in Chico by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Matousek.

MARY CULLEY is appealing for funds for Berkeley Humane to help provide care for more than 100 animals rescued in the raid of 1205 San Pablo Ave., where dirty, starving dogs, cats, rabbits and rats were discovered. The animals are in custody of the Humane Society until the outcome of the case is determined by courts. "I would really appreciate anything anyone can do to help," Mary said. Funds may be sent to her at 830 Madison or to the society at 2700 Ninth St., Berkeley.

JOANN SANCHES, who has had Action Answering Service at 807 Ramona, is expanding to include secretarial services in her new location at 1393 Solano Ave.

Brief Council Meet Monday

Albany City Council awarded H. L. Moore Chrysler-Plymouth the contract for three new patrol cars for the Police Department in a brief Monday night session presided over by Vice Mayor H. F. Call.

A suggestion that signs be installed for the safety of blind people using Albany streets was rejected because the Orientation Center for the Blind wants students to be able to cope with normal traffic conditions.

Suzanne M. Cohn of 818 San Carlos was granted a variance to convert a garage to living area.

Referred to work sessions were letters from the City of Placencia and the Albany Library Board of Trustees. It was announced that Nov. 19 has been set as the date for a work session with the Chamber of Commerce committee for Solano Avenue.

Four bids for widening and reconstruction of Masonic Avenue from Solano to Brighton were referred to Administrative Officer James B. Turner and City Attorney Larry Saler. Also referred to them was a complaint for damage from dogs by Mike and Norma Jordan of 1502 Albany Terrace.

Filed were letters from the Save San Francisco Bay association, a letter from a Cable TV company, which will be advised to submit a bill, and from Police Chief Ralph Jensen noting he is on vacation.

A recommendation from Jensen on a seminar for incentive pay was denied.

Councilman Lewis Howell urged support of the Chamber of Commerce Christmas decoration project by businessmen and homeowners.

Former Councilman and Mayor Joel Parker, a visitor, was introduced as the meeting adjourned at 8:37 p.m.

Mayor Richard O. Clark was not present.

NOTICE

Albany Public Library will be closed Nov. 5, Election Day.

Albany Chamber of Commerce Sponsors 'Overseas Yule Pool'

The Albany Chamber of Commerce is inviting all Albany residents to become Santa's helpers in "Overseas Yule Pool," a project sending Christmas to every Albany serviceman stationed outside the United States this holiday season.

Your gift can range from a 10 cent box of Cracker Jacks to a shoe-box filled with goodies of your own selection. The Chamber of Commerce will pack, box, wrap, and mail all gift parcels. Individual packages will be sent to each serviceman. Gift cards with the donor's name and address will be enclosed in the gift box. Cash donations will not be accepted, as the money will be used to purchase additional gifts, Christmas wrapping paper and ribbon.

The gifts can range from food to practical small items of appeal. Suggestions of food list

Kool Aid (pre-sweetened), popcorn (packed ready for popping in aluminum pan), small whole salamis (they love 'em), cookies (either home baked and packed in cans or purchased for mailing), canned nuts or candy (See's put out fudge, rocky road, etc. in solid blocks boxed and ready for mailing), caramel corn, fruitcake, boxed fancy crackers or pretzels, canned fruit or spreads, gum, life savers, (the list is endless!).

Pocketbooks are always welcome. As are amusing books of cartoons, humor, and satire. Travel packs of laundry soap, shoeshine pads, skin freshening pads (especially welcome to jungle based servicemen where heat is a factor), stationery,

Servicemen's Addresses Wanted

Parents of Albany servicemen now overseas are asked to leave at the Albany Times and the Albany Chamber of Commerce, or phone to Rosemary Palne (525-1452) the names and addresses of their sons or husbands.

The Albany Chamber of Commerce and the residents of Albany are cooperating in a project to send a gift package "from the folks at home" to every boy who will be spending Christmas on foreign soil.

combs, ballpoint pens, pocket knives, and use your imagination when you do your shopping at any Albany store. One mother told us she sent her son a personally inscribed picture of Carol Doda and it was an instant success! His reputation was made for the balance of his tour!

Albany service organizations are also invited to participate in "Overseas Yule Pool," as are schools, Scouting units, church groups, and City Hall. Albany merchants will donate boxes, string, wrapping paper and advice on gifts. No formalized committee is working on this worthwhile project—every resident of Albany is a committee member. It is an all-out community drive to say "Merry Christmas" to every Albany boy from "the folks back home."

Bring your contribution to the Chamber of Commerce, 1108 Solano Avenue. It does not need to be wrapped. But do bring a Christmas card with your name and address on it to enclose with your gift. Deadline for gifts will be December 1.

Help make this a Christmas Albany servicemen will never forget!

Nourishment Association Project of Soroptimists

The little-known Nourishment Association has been in operation in Albany for a number of years.

Its main function is to provide lunches for needy children in Albany schools and responsibility for the project has been assumed by the Soroptimist Club of Albany with Mrs. Irene White of the Bank of America as chairman.

Mrs. White reports that through the generosity of various civic organizations, PTAs and individuals, the association provided 758 lunches for needy children last year.

Among those who contributed were Albany Democratic Women's club, the City of Albany, Albany Rotary club, American Legion auxiliary, Alberico Business and Professional Women's club, Albany Native Daughters of the Golden West and the Soroptimist club, Vista, Albany High, Cornell and Marin school PTAs and many individuals who did not wish their names published.

Soroptimists, through Irene White, are soliciting funds again now for the continuation of the project through the 1968-69 school year. Contributions may be left at or mailed to the Solano Avenue branch of Bank of America and earmarked for the Nourishment Association.

Little Miss Flame Mimi Meets City, C of C Leaders

The Albany Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the Albany Fire Department presented to the Albany City Council on Monday night "Little Miss Flame" for 1968.

Miss Mimi Alkazzaz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ayad Alkazzaz, 1128C San Pablo, was this year's winner in the Chamber of Commerce "Family Fair Week." The winner is determined by the number of votes cast at local business places. Each purchase is worth one vote. The Fire Department's portion of the promotion is the culmination of Fire Prevention Week and the winner becomes the Department's little lady for one year.

Little Miss Flame was presented a bouquet of roses from the Fire Prevention Bureau and the Chamber of Commerce presented her with an engraved trophy. Debbie Clayton, last year's winner, was present to congratulate the new "Little Miss Flame."

Thousand Oaks-Cragmont Carnival This Saturday

Once again it is carnival time. Thousand Oaks. On Saturday, Nov. 2, from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m., Thousand Oaks hopes to welcome any new faces to this happy event.

This year, again, the overall theme for the Carnival is "Fun or All." There will be games and prizes to win, things to buy, and all kinds of edibles for the hungry.

While the children play the games, old favorites like "Squirrel" and new ones like "The Treasure Hunt," the adults rummage through white elephants, select Christmas gifts at the Country Store and Bazaar, buy cakes and homebaked breads at the bakery, and flowers and plants at the plant booth. Young and old will meet at the Cake Walk, staffed and stocked with goodies by Cragmont primary mothers; and young and old will enjoy the puppets of Mesdames Henriette Levett and Pat Welsh, and Mrs. Thurlby's marionettes. The Dad's club, whose president George Burnett, will again run the ever popular Fun House and the gay gas-filled balloons.

The carnival is sponsored by the Thousand Oaks-Cragmont primary PTA and Dad's club as the main fund-raising event of the year. The proceeds are used to support youth groups at the two schools, to buy library books and mending supplies, and to contribute to city-wide PTA sponsored welfare organizations.

This year's Carnival chairman is Mrs. Barbara Dreyer. Assisting her are Mrs. Jackie Stadman, food chairman; Mrs. Cherry McDonald, games; Mrs. Pat Bell, art; Mrs. Pat Robinson, prizes; Mrs. Evelyn Humphrey, Country Store and Bazaar; Mrs. Joy Grothkopp, plants; Mrs. Frances Jordan and Mrs. Mallon Gittelsohn, white elephants; and Mrs. Nancy Irikura, bakery.

Kingsley Berndts At Fire Conference

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Berndt have returned from the 46th annual Fireman's Conference in San Mateo. Berndt, hoseman with the Albany department for the past 11 years, served as Albany delegate to the sessions.

Keynote speaker at the opening session was State Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty.

Other events included a tour through "The Chateau," a 92-room mansion begun in 1912 by the daughter of George Pullman, parlor car magnate, and her husband. The present owner, Countess Lillian Remillard Dandini, 89 years old, permitted the group to tour the mansion because she likes firemen.

A barbecue and President's banquet and ball were enjoyed by delegates.

"San Mateo Fire department members were 'the most hosts,'" the Berndts report.

- Why?
- Examine your current EXORBITANT tax bill.
 - If 1-A passes, your resulting savings can be wiped out in one reassessment!
 - Make no mistake about it — we are headed toward disaster if property taxes are allowed to spiral!
 - Property taxes have more than doubled in the last 15 years and threaten to double again by 1980!
 - The only solution is a legal ceiling on property taxes that cannot be tampered with!

Opinions expressed in Letters to the Editor are those of the writers and not necessarily those of the Times. This newspaper reserves the right to edit letters to suit space limitations or to eliminate material which might be considered libelous.

Editor, the Times:

Albany's City Charter requires the City to collect 35 cents for the School District. It seems only logical that all School taxes should be collected by the same taxing jurisdiction. Thus, Ballot Measure "F" deletes the tax from the city tax bill and Ballot Measure "G" places the tax on the school bill. The passage of both measures will not increase the property taxes of any Albany owner by one cent. It will simply result in a transfer of the 35 cents from the city portion of the tax bill to the school portion.

We are fortunate in having a superb school system. In Albany High, there are more students on the Honor Roll than ever before. School spirit is high, and we have none of the turmoil that is presently being experienced in many Bay Area schools. I know from personal experience that graduates of Albany High have been splendidly equipped to enter the business world and are doing a fine job. Those who have gone on to our great Universities have been able to meet the challenge of academic work, as a result of their training in the Albany schools.

For these reasons, I urge every citizen to vote "YES" on Measures "F" and "G."

Sincerely,
JEROME BLANK

Editor, the Times:

Answering Mr. Graeber's letter of Oct. 21, I suggest that he obtain some facts before spouting off.

Here are some figures he forgot regarding school taxes. Emeryville $1.65, Richmond $3.143, Berkeley $1.37, Oakland $2.77, San Leandro $3.77, Albany $4.20.

Mr. Graeber, these figures plainly show that Albany has the highest school tax of all the cities in this area. If you doubt these figures, call the various boards yourself.

The real fact is that the school would like to see Proposition "F" defeated; thus making it mandatory for the City to continue collecting this 35-cent tax. Then to have "G" pass, making a tax increase of 35 cents more or a total of 70 cents they would be receiving.

It's time for the taxpayers to get a break. To you the taxpayers use your intelligence. Vote Yes on "F" and NO on "G."

(Ed. Note: Having a few minutes to spare, we took the writer's advice and called one school, Berkeley. We were told the total school tax rate for this year is $6.776. Last year, it was $6.693.

THOSE WHO KNOW ALAN CRANSTON...

PIERRE SALINGER
Former Press Secretary to President Kennedy . . .

On May 26, 1964, Pierre Salinger told the Associated Press that "the fact remains that by Mr. Alan Cranston's own admission, his inheritance tax appraisers [while Cranston was serving as California State Controller] are substantially kicking back to finance his bid for the Senate. The matter amounts to a major scandal."

HUGH M. BURNS
President Pro Tem, California State Senate . . .

On October 22, 1968, veteran Democrat state legislator of 31 years, Hugh M. Burns, told reporters that Alan Cranston's statements supporting the grape boycott "raised serious doubts as to Mr. Cranston's competency to serve as United States Senator." Said Burns: "This is undoubtedly the first time in American political history that a candidate for the U.S. Senate has ever publicly asked consumers not to buy the products of his state. This alone probably should be enough for Californians to soundly reject him at the polls November 5."

HOUSTON FLOURNOY
California State Controller . . .

On September 5, 1968, Controller Houston Flournoy issued a report to Californians. Highlighted was the fact that 25 appraisers, most of them appointees of Democrat Controller Alan Cranston and since replaced by Flournoy, failed to account for their expenses. According to a San Jose Mercury-News Sacramento Bureau article which reviewed the report, a tabulation of some 154 appraisers who did file income reports during Cranston's term as controller, showed that each averaged $20,654 during 1967. After Flournoy took office he initiated a program of qualification tests for inheritance tax appraisers. Cranston had never used such tests. The results were that of those appraisers who had served under Cranston who took the test, 48 failed and 11 refused to take the test and resigned. Only 51 passed.

JESSE M. UNRUH
California State Assembly Speaker . . .

On May 14, 1964, the Associated Press and the United Press International reported that Democrat State Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh stepped into the legislative controversy over the appraisers who were appointed by State Controller Alan Cranston. Unruh said: "Inheritance tax appraisers are one of the most corrupting influences in California politics today." The following week Unruh called on Cranston to answer the charge of a former state inheritance tax appraiser that the controller sold the jobs for $5,000 campaign contributions. The Associated Press reported that Unruh offered to open his own campaign financial records and challenged Cranston to debate the sources of his political funds.

NEGRO PUBLIC OFFICIALS May, 1964 . . .

In a joint press release reported by the United Press International in May of 1964, four Negro public officials charged that Alan Cranston pretended to favor the civil rights program while taking the opposite position in the operation of his office as California State Controller. Making the accusation, according to United Press International, were the Hon. Gilbert Lindsay and Billy G. Mills, Los Angeles City Councilmen, and the Hon. F. Douglas Ferrell and Mervyn M. Dymally, Los Angeles Assemblymen. They said: "Cranston does not visibly have one member of any minority group on his Sacramento capitol staff while other state office holders do."

OAKLAND TRIBUNE EDITORIAL October 17, 1968 . . .

Alan Cranston's record as a public official does not inspire confidence. As State Controller during the eight years of the Brown administration, he was a party to the excessive spending and fiscal irresponsibility that brought California to the brink of bankruptcy.

Hawaiian Theme Saturday For Marin School Carnival

Hawaii will be in the spotlight at Marin school next Saturday, Nov. 2. Marin school PTA will sponsor the "Aloha Day Carnival" and festivities are expected to last from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Carnival committee, headed by Mesdames Robert Nehls and Ian Ball, feels fortunate that they were able to obtain the services of the Kensington Puppet Stage. These young men will put on a puppet show in the auditorium at 2 p.m. and again at 2:45 p.m. Admission will be 20 cents for children and 30 cents for adults.

All sorts of games for the children are planned. In Room 4, the children can play Bean Bag Throw, Fish Pond or go for a Hat Walk. Out in the yard they can amuse themselves with the Marble Roll, Ring Toss, Treasure Chest, Gold Fish Toss, Duck Pond, Pound a Nail and Pitch the Plate.

Beautiful handmade items and plants will be on sale in Room 1. The mothers have been working for months to turn out such items as aprons, pot holders, hand printed tea towels, pillows, waste baskets, paper flowers, hand puppets, beanbags and Christmas decorations.

A Bake Shop will be set up in Room 2, featuring homemade cakes, pies, nutbreads, etc.

White Elephants which include many good used toys, household items, etc., will be on sale in Room 3.

A Hawaiian type Tea Room will be set up in the Kindergarten where light lunches will be served, including sandwiches and barbecued hot dogs. Other goodies, such as slushes and buttered popcorn, will be available.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nehls are gathering local color for the carnival. They are spending 10 days in the Hawaiian Islands. This trip was a prize won by the lucky Bob from his employers, Farmers' Insurance Co.

AN OPEN LETTER TO VOTERS FROM SUPERVISOR JOSEPH P. BORT

The Incumbent Supervisor Joseph P. Bort

Dear Voter:

As your Supervisor, I am your employee. You in turn are the stockholders of a multi-million dollar corporation, Alameda County. On November 5th you will decide whether to renew my contract, or not.

Frankly, the reason I am writing you this letter is that I am deeply concerned with the attitude of people who say I should be replaced so they can "balance the Board" with a Negro.

It seems to me that people who vote on a basis of prejudice—or sympathy—or fear—or a guilty conscience, are not likely to choose wisely.

It is therefore, my hope that you will look at my record and make your decision on that alone, because my record is good. Even my opponent has not challenged my stand on issues in public debate during the past 8 months of campaigning.

People in a position to really know what I have done as your Supervisor strongly support my candidacy. Here is one example:

"As a close observer of the Board of Supervisors for over four decades, having served as Alameda County Public Defender, Manager of the Alameda Co. Employees Assoc. and later as an Attorney frequently appearing before the Board, I have seen many Supervisors come and go. In my opinion none have been more thorough in their preparation, knowledge and concern for the problems of the community than Supervisor Joe Bort. He is without question one of the outstanding public servants in our county."

—Willard Shea, Attorney.

I seek and will deeply appreciate your vote on the basis of what I have already done for our county . . . and what I am capable of doing in the future.

Sincerely,

Joseph P. Bort

Supervisor

Crockett, California. As the newest community in the East Bay Municipal Utility District, what exactly is in store for you?

First, Sierra Nevada water so fresh and pure it's ranked among the finest in the country.

Second, plenty of it. Never in our 45-year history have we had a water shortage. And chances are slim that we ever will. In fact, right now we're negotiating for the rights to enough water to fill your needs clear through to the year 2020.

Then, there are all those East Bay Water extras. Little extras. Like prompt, friendly service. Whenever you need it.

of water all year long, even on the driest day.

So welcome, Crockett. To the East Bay Municipal Utility District. Take it from us. The water's fine.

A BIG DEAL for the FAT CATS

but it's BAD NEWS for homeowners and DISASTER for renters!

VOTE NO ON PROPOSITION 9

IF PROPOSITION NO. 9 WERE ADOPTED:

- Enormous property tax savings to large landowners and speculators would have to be made up by drastically increased income and sales tax on homeowners and renters.
- California's school system would be thrown into chaos.
- Bonds for construction projects totalling more than $5 billion dollars—authorized by the voters but unissued—could not be sold. This represents a loss of more than half a million jobs for California workers.

HOW are the great majority of Californians HURT by The Tax Trap Initiative?

A practical method of replacing property tax revenues lost under Proposition 9 would be a combination of these State tax increases, as calculated by State fiscal experts:

- (1) Doubling existing State Income Tax
- (2) Doubling existing State Sales Tax
- (3) Imposition of 5% Sales Tax on Food

This shifting of tax burdens would have the following effect on a family of four:

Red Cross Youth Plan Halloween for Blind Kids

Despite their current image, all Berkeley young people are NOT bent on stirring up trouble—not even on Halloween.

Proof of this is a unique "trick or treat" part yin the planning for Thursday night by a teenage group of Red Cross Youth members. The "treat" is in store for 60 blind youngsters, and the only "trick" will be for their enthusiastic college and high school hosts to "do their thing" successfully. They are making careful plans to achieve this end.

At dusk on Halloween, children from the California School for the Blind, each with a Red Cross Youth member to guide him, will get their first taste of "trick or treating" fun. Ringing doorbells at fraternity house and private homes in the area, they will demand the customary "tribute" from occupants.

Party planners have mapped the territory to be covered, forewarned residents to expect callers, and enlist the aid of Blind School staff to assist in supervising the "goblins." Red Cross hosts have even practiced doing things blindfolded themselves in order to understand better how to help their sightless young guests.

Assorted ghost, witch and hobgoblin outfits to be worn by the blind children were made by committee members at a costume workshop Thursday night.

Through drama comes ban community in such a way as to impress the worshipping congregation with the relevance of Christ for our time.

The Rev. Ron Coulter of Oakland will direct the play. He has come to MASC from religious drama work for the Heritage Players of Oregon. The cast is composed of June Arthur of Grace United Methodist Church in Oakland, Alonzo Edgar and Martha Swisher of Taylor Memorial Church in Oakland, Ann Gordon of Castro Valley United Methodist Church and Mike Odom and Dick Wood from other Oakland churches, making the cast ecumenical.

MASC players are recapturing for modern worship the practice of the early Christians who sometimes used drama to convey their message. Last year MASC presented their dramas 146 times, including plays done at San Quentin, juvenile halls, a school for troubled girls, convalescent hospitals and other places as a community service beyond their performances for churches of varying denominations.

MASC players come from all walks of life to participate in these dramas—lawyers, milkmen, students, secretaries, housewives, factory personnel, etc. The MASC organization is led by Earl Kehret of Oakland and the Rev. Charles A. Woodyorth, appointed by Bishop Donald Harvey Tippet this year as Executive Secretary.

Those who have seen MASC's recent TV series, "Wonder Window," for children on Sunday mornings will be familiar with another facet of MASC's religious drama work.

There will be no admission charge, just a free-will offering. The public is cordially invited, said the Rev. Ronald A. Grelich, pastor of the church.

Hill and Dale Juniors Have Made Ditty Bags

Hill and Dale Junior Women's club made and filled Santa Claus "ditty bags" for our servicemen in Vietnam.

Albany merchants who contributed to this project include: Discounts Unlimited, Forsters Variety, Sam's Pharmacy and Jay Vee Liquors.

The Juniors, a philanthropic group, have been busy raising money for a teenage youth center, the Steeple, located in Richmond and available to youth of Richmond, El Sobrante, San Pablo and Pinole.

Proceeds from a recent fashion show will be presented to Mrs. Marie Daniels, director of the Steeple at the club's November business meeting. Son of Local Woman Honored

Les Oswald of South Lake Tahoe, son of Mabel Kohlscheen of 835 Washington Ave., has been presented with a gold radio as "CBER of the Year" (CB standing for citizen band radio) for his entry in CB Magazine's HELP contest.

The magazine flew Oswald and his wife to Oklahoma City for presentation of the gold Messenger III radio for his car, an addition which will permit him to aid motorists in distress and in other emergencies.

The winning entry was Oswald's story of removing victims from a crashed light plane in the Sierra last February. His story credited the Lake Tahoe CB and Boat Club members, California Highway Patrol, sheriff officers, firemen and townspeople for co-operation and as representing millions of Cbers throughout the country who do not turn their backs on tragedy simply because they are not personally involved.

CB monitoring stations and units in the CB clubs' vehicles working together in the tragedy reached from Lake Tahoe to Sacramento and through relay calls, reached out over the Sierra Nevada to Carson City in search of blood donors.

ON BATTLESHIP

Navy Lieutenant (junior grade) John D. Turner, 28, son of Mr. Frank Turner of 1014 Ordway St., Albany, and husband of Mrs. Barbara R. Turner of Concord, N.C., is serving aboard the battleship New Jersey in the Tonkin Gulf. On its first firing mission in 15 years, the battleship's 16-inch guns destroyed enemy ammunition storage areas and artillery sites within and just north of the demilitarized zone. Spotter aircraft working with the New Jersey described the hits as "right on the money." Later the same day the ship took two artillery positions and six bunkers under fire. One artillery site and three bunkers were destroyed. Rear Admiral Sam H. Moore, Commander Cruiser Destroyer Group of the Seventh Fleet, told newsmen the New Jersey would supplement the air arm of the Seventh Fleet, Marines and Air Force.

VICE MAYOR H. F. CALL HEADS PETRIS CAMPAIGN

Albany Vice Mayor Hubert F. Call has been named chairman of the Albany campaign to re-elect Senator Nicholas C. Petris.

Petris, a 10-year legislative veteran, is running for re-election to the 11th Senatorial District seat he won in 1966.

"No one in Sacramento has been more effective than Senator Petris in carrying legislation designed to help local government," Call said in accepting the post.

"Senator Petris understands the problems of the cities and school districts in Alameda County and has focused his attention on relief to taxpayers without cutting vital services provided by city government.

"His action in getting the massive $260-million tax relief program on the November ballot (Prop. 1A) is a small measure of Senator Petris' ability to get things done for the people of his county and the state," Call said.

"I have joined other county elected officials to insure that The Senator Petris Story is being truthfully told throughout the county," Call said.

"He works for us in Sacramento, now it is our turn to work for him," the vice mayor concluded.
